

Make it and Bake it – terms and conditions

1. There will be no refunds offered to participants who have made a donation.
2. You can enter the competition up to midnight on 30th October 2020.
3. There will be a prize for the winner of the Adult and Child entry and the decision of the judge will be final. The winners will be announced on our social media and website platforms week commencing 2nd November 2020.
4. By submitting a photo for our competition you give Dame Vera Lynn Children's Charity permission for your/your child's entry to be published online on our website and social media platforms.
5. We (Dame Vera Lynn Children's Charity) and the Nutmeg Tree tearoom in Ditchling are not responsible for the outcome of any recipe you try from their videos. You may not achieve the desired results due to variations in ingredients, cooking temperatures, omissions or your own cooking ability.
6. You should always use your best judgement when cooking with raw ingredients such as eggs, and seek expert advice before beginning your recipe if you are unsure.
7. You should always take care not to injure yourself or others on sharp knives or other cooking implements or burn yourself or others while cooking.
8. You should examine the contents of ingredients prior to preparation and consumption of these recipes in order to be fully aware of and to advise others accurately of the presence of substances which might provoke an adverse reaction in some consumers.
9. Children should be supervised at all times when cooking.
10. Recipes available on Dame Vera Lynn Children's Charity website and social media have not been formally tested by us and we do not provide any assurances nor accept any responsibility or liability with regard to their originality, efficacy, quality or safety.
